

Reading Reflection Log

Response Choices - Choose one prompt each night after reading 30 minutes. No response can be done twice in the same week.

1. Make a prediction. What do you think will happen next in your book and why do you think that?
2. Give an inference that you made while reading today. Cite the evidence from the text and what you already knew that helped you make an inference.
3. Summarize what you read today, including the who, what, when, where, why.
4. What is one theme that you are learning from the book and how are you learning it?
5. Explain one theme in the novel you are reading and support the theme with evidence from the text.
6. What was the main event from your reading today? How did the main event contribute to the development of the story's plot?
7. Give an internal conflict that a character is dealing with in the story. What caused this problem? How was this resolved or how do you predict it will be resolved?
8. Give an external conflict that a character is dealing with in the story. What caused this problem? How was this resolved or how do you predict it will be resolved?
9. What connection to the story can you make? Does it relate to your own life, the real world, or something we are learning in class? Please be specific and explain in detail.
10. Would you recommend this story to a friend? Why or why not?

Grading Criteria - 5 points per nightly response

- Each response should be 4-6 complete sentences.
- Each response should be fully explained with specific details from the story as well as personal analysis. Bonus points can be given for proper in-text citations (page numbers).
- Reading log is filled out completely each night with a parent signature.
